

1. Jeff suggested that we all struggle with prejudice, even if we've been following Jesus a long time. Why is prejudice so hard to overcome?
2. Jeff suggested that acceptance means setting aside superiority and embracing equality. What are some ways it can be easy to feel superior to others in your life?
3. Jeff suggested that acceptance means setting aside superiority and embracing equality. What is one practical way you can embrace equality this week with someone you used to label as "less than?"
4. Jeff suggested that reconciliation means forgiving wrongs and canceling debts. Who do you need to forgive this week?
5. Jeff suggested that reconciliation means forgiving wrongs and canceling debts. Why do we tend to keep a list of debts people owe us even after we've forgiven them?
6. What is the immediate next step you need to take to accept or reconcile this week?